

GETTING STUFF DONE IN HEELS: A HOME, INTERIORS AND LIFESTYLE BLOG MEDIA PACK // OCTOBER 2017

ABOUT

I am a lifestyle and interiors blogger - I love all aspects of working on different projects with different brands.

I work really hard and take huge pride in what I do and it's of utmost importance that you are happy with what I produce for you.

I'll be committed to your project and be authentic and honest - readers can sense a fake a mile off, can't they?

It's vital that your story and product can be woven seamlessly in to my images and text - I'll work hard to keep that integrity.

I'm happy to discuss any ideas you have and can also come up with my own.

I'm reliable and honest and won't let you down.
